Where is your Stockholm? A Public Participatory GIS study to unfold positive and negative experiences in the landscape of Stockholm

Var är din Stockholm?

Overview

Identification SND1030-002

Abstract

"Where is your Stockholm?" ("Var är ditt Stockholm?") is the first Public Participatory GIS (PPGIS) survey to address emotional, social, and environmental qualities at once. The social-ecological picture of Stockholm that emerge from the data can be used for a variety of different purposes; from analysis of everyday routines, to where people in Stockholm connect to the green infrastructure.
